Focus

Joerns Healthcare focuses its development efforts on products that make delivering care easier and those receiving your care safer. When you commit to the Joerns Healthcare product offering, we respond with value-added programs to help you maximize the benefits our products have to offer.

Our Joerns OneSource™ team offers *FREE interior design services. At Joerns Healthcare, we also provide project management and installation of product purchased.

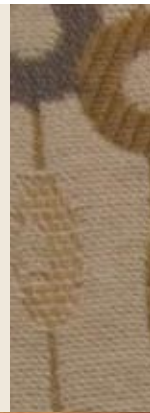

Our OneSource™ designers will assist you in design services that include specification and selection of:

- Colors
- Flooring
- Wall coverings
- Window coverings
- Furnishings (Seating, Tables, Beds, Case Goods)
- Fabrics and Accessories

Selection

**subject to purchase of product*

Quality

Our OneSource™ team also works with your Joerns Healthcare representative and your facility's team in space planning by utilizing state of the art computer aided design programs and site visits to assist in the management of the project.

Our customers are never charged for these services, provided that the products covered in the scope of the project are purchased through Joerns Healthcare.

Our OneSource™ team specializes in senior living interiors. They understand that healthcare designs are focused on firmer seating, visually defined edges on tables, no-slip surfaces, specialized fabrics and ADA requirements when planning space.

They will help you create a warm, comfortable, home-like atmosphere your residents will love. They understand that your goal is a safe, yet functional environment for caregivers, residents and their families.

Comfort

Experience

Our experienced designers will assist you in selecting just the right products, materials and accessories to complement our Joerns beds and furnishings for any room within your facility:

- Dining Areas
- Activity Rooms
- Living Rooms
- Resident Suites
- Offices
- Outdoor Settings
- Chapels

Comfort, quality and style are evident throughout the OneSource™ program. Let our OneSource™ team create a warm, familiar space to attract potential residents and their families to enjoy your facility and always feel like they are home.
